

Terms of Reference: Field Investigator (External)

Directorate General of Health Services (DGHS) in collaboration with NHSRC, is undertaking a study titled "Association of Iodine status with thyroid function among the adult population residing in Delhi: A cross sectional study". This is a community-based study which will be conducted in the field practice areas of 5 medical colleges of New Delhi. To facilitate community intervention, facilitate sample collections and work up the logistics on a day-to-day basis, 5 field Investigators are required for the purpose. The Terms of Reference for the position are mentioned below:

Role: Field Investigator

Responsibilities:

- Carrying out the field related activities of the project that include enrollment of the study participants, taking consent, interviewing the study participants, facilitating the required investigations, data collection and data entry.
- Counselling study participants regarding the sample collection and facilitating the sample collection activities along with the phlebotomist.
- Ensuring the samples collected are transported as per designed protocols and reach the testing facility on the day of collection.
- Ensuring the participants enrolled receive their thyroid profile results by doing home visits/phone calls.
- Performing any other study related activity delegated by Principal investigator or co-investigators.

Qualifications:

Essential: Bachelor's in sciences or social work or diploma in social work with at least one year of field experience.

Desirable: Experience of working in field/outreach activities involving active interaction with the community. Good verbal and written communication skills with a problem-solving attitude.

Maximum age limit: 32 years

Place of posting: New Delhi

Duration: Initially for a period of four months from the date of joining Remuneration: Rs 26,000 per month /- and TA/DA as per entitlements.

How to apply: Candidates are requested to fill in the online application correctly which is available on the NHSRC website (<http://nhsrcindia.org>). Applications will be accepted in the prescribed online application format only. The last date for receiving applications is 7th November 2024.